Amber Souza

Amber Souza has been singing since she was 7 years old. She started in her school choir and has been involved in choir ever since. She has traveled and performed all over the world from places such as Paris and New York.

In 2011, she was accepted into her high schools advanced choir, OPUS. She was in OPUS all throughout high school and participated in many competitions with them. OPUS taught her how to be a leader and a better musician.

In 2015, she attended Indian River State College on a Vocal Scholarship where she studied and performed music. She was a part of IRSCs two choirs, the Company Singers, a show choir, and the Chorale.

Currently, Amber sings at a local church every Sunday. She is furthering her education in Music and Teaching. She hopes to make an impact on all her students lives and instill them with the knowledge she was given.
