Kelly Desouza

Kelly has been in the entertainment business for over 20 years, working with bands in her hometown of Boston and eventually moving to Fort Lauderdale, FL. Kelly attended The Art Institute of Fort Lauderdale and studied Music Business and Production and graduated with an Associate's Degree of Arts. While still in school she was hired by Gloria Estefan as a Tour Manager Assistant, where she helped coordinate "The into the Light" tour.

Upon graduation, Kelly worked in many fields of the music industry and has worked with national acts, promoting large concerts throughout the state of Florida. Kelly's most exciting time was when she was employed by The Broward Center of Performing Arts, where she worked with national Artists such as The Beach Boys, Harry Connick Jr, Pink, Jewel, David Copperfield and famous Broadway shows.

Kelly was the manager and event coordinator for Music for Life Academy for three years.

Kelly has now taken her lifelong passion for music and opened her own music school and retail store, Key To Music. Her great rapport with her students and their families has been a huge success!
